

I would like to comment on the Broadband over Power lines.I ask that you carefully consider the ramifications that this would have on licensed Amateur radio operators.It has been proven by extensive field research by the ARRL that considerable if not intolerable noise on the Amateur Bands that would make communications during emergencies and other amateur activities almost useless.Please do not allow this to happen.

Thank You

AE4NR

Richard A Marsteller